Game Night with a Twist

Do you remember playing Monopoly and wondering when the game was going to end or how it might end for you – real estate magnate or broke and bankrupt? Well, there is a different, fun game that not only entertains, but teaches you how to get out of the rat race. Join us as we play the investing game from "Rich Dad" Robert Kiyosaki:

Cashflow Game Night Wednesday, March 20, at 6:30pm.

March Book Club

Join the book club this month for a conversation about the Former First Lady's book Becoming, by Michelle Obama. The book details her childhood and relationship with President Obama, as well as their time in the White House and after. The book was published in November 2018. We will have an interactive discussion about the book, eat tea sandwiches, drink tea (hot and cold) and enjoy each other's company. Please read the book before coming to the club and bring a snack to share. Future books will be selected by those present.
